

SPRING 2023

INTRODUCTION TO LEADERSHIP WORKSHOPS

The team at California Leadership Academy is again presenting the Spring “Introduction to Leadership” Workshops. These workshops are one night or morning, two and a half hours of leadership training for aspiring band and colorguard leaders. They are designed to introduce the concepts of leadership by example, the personal price of leadership, the qualities of an effective leader, and how to develop and maintain a positive attitude.

This year's spring workshops will take place:

Friday, April 21, 6:00-8:30pm
Helix High School, La Mesa

Saturday, April 22, 9:30am-12:00noon
Mt. Carmel High School, San Diego

Any session only $20. Payment collected at workshop
Reserve your spot here: <https://forms.gle/eqYPnfdidPvNY2TX6>

SCAN ME TO RESERVE YOUR SPOT

Then get ready to experience two and a half days of Leadership Training at a Summer Camp! These camps are a more in-depth experience preparing you for the year ahead. Bring your entire student leadership team for a complete team building experience that will get you on task for the start of the year. Head to CLAcademy.com for registration information.

June 30 – July 2 Resident camp at Vanguard University in Costa Mesa
July 6-8 Commuter Camp at Eleanor Roosevelt High School in Eastvale

Questions? Email MarkfromCLA@gmail.com or call/text (714) 987-1614